

Gabriel Aversano MBA, Analyst - Kinectrics

Technical & Plenary Committee

Gabriel has over 7 years of experience in the nuclear industry within safety analysis, engineering, innovation and project management. Gabriel is a leader in innovation and machine learning at Kinectrics. He is a developer and Product Manager of computer vision software products developed within Kinectrics and leads other innovation initiatives including laser scanning/BIM/Digital Twins, VR/AR and machine learning leveraging 10 years of experience in automation and software development.